Who is Crystal?

Crystal H. Mayo is the author of Lucy's Home, the heartwarming true story of a boy named Anthony, a spunky little dog named Lucy, and the power of prayer that changed everything.

Inspired by the real-life Lucy, Crystal's books invite children to believe in possibilities, find joy in the everyday, and discover their own storytelling voices.

She loves visiting schools, libraries, homeschool groups, and anywhere children are gathered to share Lucy's Home and inspire kids to dream big, write boldly, and celebrate their own ideas. Crystal lives in Lake Charles, Louisiana, where Lucy's adventures continue to bring smiles to young readers.

What Happens During an Author Visit?

Crystal offers engaging sessions for PreK–8th grade, including lively read-alouds, creative workshops, behind-the-scenes illustration lessons, a “day in the life of an author,” and chapel talks. Programs includes interactive activities, Q&A, and special incentives for schools—such as donated books, a stuffed Lucy, and a week-long curriculum with Lucy's Home. Pre-ordered and signed books are also available for purchase at events.
